

Balagurukulam

Hindu Centre is dedicated to the spiritual progress of Singapore Hindus through the three pillars of Jnana (Knowledge), Bhakti (Devotion) and Seva (Service).

As part of Jnana, Hindu Centre organises “Balagurukulam” classes imparting knowledge about basic Hinduism to children aged between 5 years to 15 years once a week on Sundays, 10 am to 11.30 am (depending on the age group). Classes are to be conducted online via zoom. For an immersive experience, we plan to have 1 or 2 sessions at Hindu Centre’s office in Owen Road (near Farrer Park) and parents will be notified about in-person classes at least 2 weeks in advance.

There are 2 semesters in a year comprising 11 classes in each;
Semester 1 runs from March-May 2024, starts 3rd March 2024
Semester 2 will run from July-September 2024.

Fees - S$25 per child / semester. (the fees/donations are used to help organise in-person classes and other programs)

Children learn about

- Puranas & Fables - sharing of stories, Epics and their Characters (Eg. Ramayana, Mahabharata);
- Basics about Shastras (Vedas & Agamas);
- Chant simple mantras, Shlokas (Hymns);
- Core Values of a Good Hindu (Yamas & Niyamas);
- Temple Worship & Practices, 5 step Puja;
- Learn & Participate in Festivals & Celebrations.

Please register through this link to enrol your child for Semester 1:

Hindu Centre is a non-profit society run by volunteers. It depends on the goodwill of generous donors and supports who believe in its work and mission.

We train volunteer teachers and through them, we deliver this service to kids.

Click Here to Register for Balagurukulam Classes

www.hinducentre.org.sg
<https://www.sfh.sg/hcfriend>

Hindu Centre
Jnana • Bhakti • Seva